PERSONALS.

A. E. WALKER of Louisville is in the city.

Miss Mary Remond of Little Rock is visiting her cousins, Misses Nellie and Fannie Trezevant, 509 Vance street.

GEORGE MANLOW of Vicksburg, one of the popular young men of that city, is at Gaston's, and will probably locate here.

SAM MARLEY, the well known plumber, who has been with J. W. N. Browne for the last ten years, is now with Rutledge & Langomarsino.

D. S. WASHBURN, book-keeper and collector for G. W. Fisher, is very low with typhoid fever at Mr. Fisher's residence. Mr. Fisher's mother and brother are here from New York to attend him. Miss Belle Raymond, a niece of Mr. Fisher, is also seriously ill with the same fever. His many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

WEST TENNESSEE WHIG: Dr. J. W. Rogers of Washington, father of J. H. Rogers, the inventor of the Pan-Atlantic telephone, is a native of Haywood county, this State, and in early life was married to Miss Cornelia Harris of Fayette county. Dr. Rogers has engineered the enterprise for his son in Washington. Dr. Rogers spent a greater portion of his life as an Episcopal minister, and prior to the war was rector of Thomas's church at Somerville. After the war he spent some time in England, and attended the Pan-Anglican Council, an ecclesiastical body which assembled in London about that time. On his return to America he was imbued with extreme high church ideas and practiced ritualism in the church he had charge of in Memphis that was beyond anything the Episcopalians on this side of the Atlantic were accustomed to. A quarrel between him and the bishop ensued, and shortly thereafter he went over to the Catholic Church. He is a man of very genial and fascinating manners, he has a high degree of personal magnetism and a fine faculty for entertaining.

ON 'CHANGE.

At Liverpool yesterday American wheat was steady, but demand poor, holders offering moderately. Corn steady, but demand poor.

VISITORS on 'Change yesterday: W. J. Gatlin, Salisbury, Tenn.; J. H. Stafford, Concordia; D. A. Ferguson, Salisbury; A. M. Alsop, Allenton, Tenn.; G. B. Mitchell, Milwaukee.

YESTERDAY was a dull day at Chicago. The following are the closing prices for May options: Pork, $11.25; lard, 62 1/2; clear rib sides, 5.65; corn, 40 1/2; wheat, 84 1/2; bid; oats, 32 1/2; bid.

REPORT of the Grain Elevator yesterday: Wheat received, none; withdrawn, 8301 bushels; in store, 5505 bushels. Corn received, 5831 bushels; withdrawn, 2905 bushels; in store, 32,851 bushels. Oats received, 3953 bushels; withdrawn, 4281 bushels; in store, 32,422 bushels.

The situation of the cotton market is far from encouraging, and it is feared that lower prices may be looked for before a healthy reaction sets in. The capital of the world seems to be arrayed against the producer, and every available pretext is eagerly seized upon to depress the market. The large increase of daily port receipts over those of last year is now the favorite bar argument, and that it is being successfully worked is apparent from the weaker tone and lower prices of all important markets. The publication of Elliott's annual report, indicating that an American crop of 6,150,000 bales will fully supply the consumptive wants of the world, has also doubtless had its effect in depressing the market. The tone on 'Change is decidedly bearish, although a few plucky spirits are still bravely it out and insisting that the turning point is near at hand. It will be pleasant to record the change.

NOTICE.

The Louisville, New Orleans and Texas and Mississippi and Tennessee railroads will sell on Mondays (15th and 22nd) and Tuesdays (16th and 23rd) of February round trip tickets to New Orleans for $9.50, good for fifteen days. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
